THE INSIDE SCOOP ON FOOD IN LOS ANGELES

BOOK NOW

Einat Admony, chef-owner of New York's Balaboosta, Bar Bolonat and Taïm restaurants, is popping up at Mauro's Cafe at Fred Segal from May 27 to 31. Her recently published cookbook, "Balaboosta: Bold Mediterranean Recipes to Feed the People You Love," features 140 of the recipes she cooks for family and friends. Admony will be serving upscale versions of the Mediterranean dishes you might find on any given night at Balaboosta, such as shrimp kataïf with tobiko sauce and adobo-rubbed skirt steak with charred tomato, spring onions and cherry tomato vinaigrette. The three-course dinner will blend her Israeli heritage with inspirations from California's spring produce. Optional wine pairing. Seatings from 6 to 9:30 p.m. each night. Tickets are $90 (excluding beverages). To make a reservation, call (917) 740-1003 or go to balaboosta-mauros.brownpapertickets.com. Mauro's Cafe at Fred Segal, 8112 Melrose Ave., Los Angeles.
